THE FLEET.

BRINGS SICK FROM FLEET.

Hospital Ship Relief Finishes First Voyage.

Surgeon Stokes, Commanding, Tells of Success.

Men from Every Warship Well Cared for.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Dived from Magdalena Bay, with 152 sick from the battleship fleet on board, the hospital ship Relief, in command of Surgeon C. F. Stokes of the United States Navy, completed her first voyage this morning when she dropped anchor in this harbor.

Later in the day she proceeded to the Mare Island navy yard. When seen on board the Relief, Commander Stokes said:

"The need of a hospital ship has long been apparent in naval circles, and when one takes into consideration the good results obtained, he is bound to admit that no mistake was made in assigning the Relief for duty with the Atlantic fleet."

"I give my orders to the sailing master, and he follows them out to the letter. As a result there is not the least trouble on board, and matters go along without a hitch."

"Once the Relief has discharged her patients at Mare Island, where they are to be taken care of in the hospital, the vessel will rejoin the fleet at San Diego. The sick on board have been given the best treatment, something which is impossible on one of the big ships, where the interests of so many men must be looked after. We have at present 152 patients who are to be operated on and expect to sufferers from tuberculosis and fifteen insane. In all 110 sick are now being cared for on board, and if necessary, we could accommodate fifty more."

"We have not lost a single patient, but, on the other hand, a great improvement in the condition of all is noted."

"As the Relief lay at anchor, the stream of many of the patients made their way to the quarter deck, where they enjoyed the warm sunshine. Men from every vessel of the great fleet arrived on the hospital ship, and were anxious to return. While at Mare Island the doctors on the hospital ship were kept busy every minute of the time caring for the sick who came aboard from the Atlantic squadron. Ten operations were performed during the stay in the south."

In the handling of the patients on board the Relief, Surgeon Stokes is assisted by Dr. W. D. Palmer, Raymond P. Pear, H. F. Stiles, W. F. Sherrill, J. O. Downey and fifty-six men from the hospital corps.

THOMAS STANDS FOR PUBLICITY.

"IT IS THE PEOPLE'S NAVY," IS ADMIRAL'S PRONOUNCEMENT.

Believe It Would Be Better for Nation if Everything Pertaining to Warships, Except Technical Secrets of Interest Only to Seamen, Were More in Limelight.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MAGDALENA, Bay, April 2, via San Diego, April 7.—Rear-Admiral Charles M. Thomas, temporarily in command of the Atlantic fleet since the departure of Admiral Evans, is busily engaged getting the multitudinous affairs of the fleet in hand.

"I shall not remove permanently to the Fleet," said Admiral Thomas today. "I shall take with me only what I shall require for a few weeks, maintaining my quarters on the Minnesota, in case I should wish to come back to them. It is Admiral Evans' intention to rejoin the fleet as soon as he is able to do so."

Admiral Thomas made rather an unusual pronouncement regarding publicity affecting the fleet.

"It has always been my belief," he said, "that the public is entitled to know everything concerning the navy that has to do with its welfare. There are, of course, many matters of a technical nature which must be kept secret from foreign powers, but there is also a kind of a mind in which the country would be interested particularly, anyway."

"It is the people's navy. This is the only reason that I know why we should concern them with what we are doing, as long as essential military secrets are kept inviolate. I think it will be better for the people of the United States, and for the navy, if they know each other more intimately."

WELCOMES PUBLICITY.

"I shall welcome any effort to acquaint the public more thoroughly with the fleet."

The French steamer Maite, of the Charognes Reunis line, of Antwerp, ran into the bay Sunday for a glimpse of the fleet, unwittingly came in contact with the American fleet, and just escaped having to pay $800 port dues before departure was permitted. Several San Francisco agents, however, had agreed to pay the $800, bound for South Mexican ports, and Agent McNear of the steamship company had put in to afford his passengers a look at the battleships.

Many sailors were on board the Maite, in honor of Captain Guineas of Lower California, which was attended by several naval officers, including members of Admiral Thomas' personal staff. Godeffroy, Root and Nash of San Francisco, and several other civilians.

Agent McNear sent the purser of the steamer ashore, where he was detained by the authorities. The next day, after many conferences, the Mexican officials fixed the port dues of the Maite at $600, and it was decided to pay it, but the port officer finally released the vessel.

VAUDEVILLE ON SHIP.

The vaudeville performance given by the crew of the battleship Minnesota was the first social function of the season at Magdalena. The show, which has been weeks in preparation under the direction of Chaplain S. K. Evans, who was a member of the crew, and was executed with great detail, was produced on a stage erected on the foredeck of the Minnesota. It lasted from 8 to 11 o'clock and was attended by nearly 1000 officers and men of the fleet.

LONDON, April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch] The formal reply of President Roosevelt to the invitation of Great Britain offering the "abilities of British ports to the American battle fleet on its voyage around the world and asking the fleet to visit an English port, has been received at the Foreign Office here.

The "Press" points out that the details of the last leg of the voyage have not yet been arranged, but he thanks the British government for this invitation.

Hundred Weeks of Mail for Fleet.

London, April 7.—The mail collector, Hajer, which arrived yesterday from Magdalena Bay with mail from the fleet, sold out this noon with about 100 sacks of mail. She will return Monday in time to receive the "Merry Widow" today.

Authorization for the construction of this section is now sought. The cost will be about $8,000,000 and the roadbed will be capable of double tracking.

Deputy Savach, who reported on behalf of the commission, said the road half of nine districts in the country will be completed by 1912 when the Chinese-Japanese programme will have been completed.

LONDON, April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch] As a result of the conference held in this city between Mackenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor of Canada; John Morley, Secretary of State for India, and the Earl of Elgin, Secretary of State for the Colonies, a memorandum of the traditional rights arising from the commission of Hindus to Canada has been found.

While no legislation to restrict this movement from India will be passed, administrative measures will be taken to deter the Indians from going to Canada. This will take the form of sending circulars to the Punjab and other districts in India, whence the majority of the immigrants come, in which it will be explained that the condition of the labor market makes it undesirable for Indian workmen to go to Canada and the Canadian climate also is unsuited to them.

Other steps were taken to counteract the work of the immigration agents who have been granted free passage for the vessels engaged in this trade that will make it necessary for them to increase the cost of passage. The price of passage of a family is one of the inducements to move in this country, and it is not to be interested particularly, anyway.

"It is the people's navy. This is the only reason that I know why we should concern them with what we are doing, as long as essential military secrets are kept inviolate. I think it will be better for the people of the United States, and for the navy, if they know each other more intimately."

REVOLUTIONARY.

SOLDIERS CAMP IN STREETS OF LISBON

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.]

LISBON, April 7.—Unawed by the strong military force with which the city has swarmed since the election rioting on Sunday evening and the heavy arrivals of troops from the provinces today, the population of Lisbon made a fresh demonstration this evening.

In the outlying sections of the city they paraded shouting and jeered the soldiers and sang revolutionary airs until dispersed by troops.

Two hundred arrests were made and it is officially announced that more than 600 arrests were made on Sunday and Monday. The prisoners were transferred this afternoon to Caxias fortress, where preparations had been made to guard several hundred long-term occupants and where the most rigid investigations of the rioting have already been inaugurated.

Tonight the military again camped in the streets and even greater precaution than last night was taken against possible uprising. Artillery has been mounted in the squares and an anarchist newspaper's offices are especially strongly guarded.

Premier Ferreira today gave out a statement to the public in which he said that order must be preserved, and that the government is prepared to adopt the most stringent measures to insure public peace and safety.

ANTONIO, April 7.—Westbound Santa Fe passenger train No. 12 derailed into an open switch at Black Diamond this afternoon, killing B. J. Dowert, an employee of the company, from Boston, and injuring his wife and two children.

Mr. Frank Wilson of Brooklyn, N. Y., a passenger, also received a broken leg, and was taken to the hospital. No other passengers were injured.

Dowert, who repairs semaphores for the company, was working between two box cars when the crash came and his body was badly mangled.

Together with his family, he occupied a box car, which was standing directly behind the car that was reduced to kindling wood by the impact. When taken from the wreckage, Mrs. Dowert was found to be seriously injured, while the girl and baby were badly bruised. All will recover.

It is said a freight crew left the switch open, and there being a curve at that point, Engineer Price did not see the danger until too late. Both he and Fireman McLean were taken to their posts, but were not injured.

The front of the engine was badly damaged, and the trucks of the mail, express and baggage cars left the rails. Traffic was delayed about two hours, as the wreckage was practically on the switch.

SIXTIETH CONGRESS. WON OVER TO SUBSIDY BILL.

House Committee Now Said to Be Favorable.

Majority - One for Gallinger Ship Subsidy Measure.

Four Dollars Per Mile for Fast Mail Service.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
WASHINGTON, April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At a special meeting today the House Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, had under consideration the Gallinger Ship Subsidy Bill, which passed the Senate March 29.

It is understood that Representative Stearns of Minnesota has been won over by friends of the bill and will cast his vote in the committee for a favorable report. This will give the measure a majority of one. It is expected that the vote will stand ten to nine in the next session of its passage.

If the measure becomes a law, the Postmaster-General may enter into contracts to pay $4 a mile for ocean mail service having a speed of not less than sixteen miles an hour, which carry mail to South America, the Philippines, Japan, China and Australia.

MORE LAND.

WINS POINT FOR HARBOR FORTS.

FLINT SECURES AMENDMENT TO FORTIFICATION BILL.

California Senators Will Fight for Appropriation of Half Million Dollars for Protection of San Pedro, Now Incorporated in the Measure Before Congress.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
WASHINGTON, April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Flint today secured an amendment to the fortification Bill in the Senate, providing for an appropriation of $500,000 for the fortification of San Pedro Harbor.

The fight for this appropriation will be continued by the Senator when this Bill goes to the conference committees of the House and Senate. Senator Flint will be the chairman of the joint committee, and will do what he can to keep the Flint amendment in the Bill.

Senator Flint's Bill provides that the amount appropriated be used for the purchase of additional land for the fortification of San Pedro. The Senator would like to have Congress provide a much larger appropriation, but does not think that it will be possible at this time, and will content to secure the $500,000 appropriation, which he figures will acquire about 100 acres and a start toward making this harbor a great military station, and creating a port which would make it well protected.

The Senator thinks that at least 200 acres should be acquired. Then the government engineer, and those who could be most longitude, make the charge that San Pedro did not have the land and accommodations for a great fortified harbor and a great military reservation.

It is understood that the officials of the War Department agree that there is considerable land, which, if secured, would aid the government in establishing the proposed improvements.

REFORMS FOR DISTRICT.

Congress Says Seventy-five Cents for Gas, and Doors to Public Buildings Must Open Outward.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—The whole of the session of the House today was devoted to the consideration of the District of Columbia Appropriation Bill.

Two amendments of more or less national interest were adopted, one providing for 25-cent gas for all District establishments, and the other requiring that all outside doors to public buildings should open outward and that new buildings shall have four exits. An effort to secure the incorporation of the District-laws provision applicable to the District failed.

The bill, which appropriates $3,500,000, was passed, and thereupon the House, at 4:30 p.m., out of respect to the memory of the late Representative Abraham L. Brick of Indiana, took a recess until tomorrow.

HALL ATTACKS ARMY BILL.

Is Opposed to Growing Expenses of Military Establishment on Land and Sea.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—As an aftermath of the passage yesterday of the army appropriation bill, Senator Hale of Maine, chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, today sounded a warning against increases of the military establishments of the country, saying they were inviting a deficit to the treasury and would serve no usefulness.

He also pronounced against the plan for four battalions and called attention to the fact that 20 per cent. of the government's revenues were now being expended on past, present and future wars, including expenditures for pensions.

Senator Hale traced the increase in military expenditures to the necessity of maintaining a large force, which he spoke of as "a pestilential curse." He made the prediction that the expenses would pile up until this country got rid of those islands.

Senator Hale urged for reconsideration of the vote by which the army bill was passed and his motion was laid on the table at his request. Senator Burkett characterized the proposal as being "a little bit hard."

WASHINGTON, April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Personal encounters between members of Congress were narrowly averted in a meeting of the House Committee on Elections of President, Vice-President and Representatives in Congress, when that body decided not to consider a bill providing for a much larger appropriation than was asked for.

It was thought that it would be possible at this time, and will be content to secure the $500,000 appropriation, which he figures will acquire about 100 acres and a start toward making this harbor a great military station, and creating a port which would make it well protected.

The Senator thinks that at least 200 acres should be acquired. Then the government engineer, and those who could be most longitude, make the charge that San Pedro did not have the land and accommodations for a great fortified harbor and a great military reservation.

It is understood that the officials of the War Department agree that there is considerable land, which, if secured, would aid the government in establishing the proposed improvements.

Congress Says Seventy-five Cents for Gas, and Doors to Public Buildings Must Open Outward.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—The whole of the session of the House today was devoted to the consideration of the District of Columbia Appropriation Bill.

Two amendments of more or less national interest were adopted, one providing for 25-cent gas for all District establishments, and the other requiring that all outside doors to public buildings should open outward and that new buildings shall have four exits. An effort to secure the incorporation of the District-laws provision applicable to the District failed.

BAILEYISM AN ISSUE.

Enemies of Texas Senator Will Offer Plank to Denver Convention.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES

FORT WORTH (Tex.) April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An organized effort was started here today by the opponents of Senator J. W. Bailey to induce the National Democratic Convention in Denver to insert a plank either for or against "Baileyism," or the serving of trusts while holding public office.

A bitter campaign is being waged to keep Bailey from going to Denver as a delegate, and the Senator is canvassing the State on the issue, his election as a delegate having become paramount to all national issues.

The Senator's opponents declare Bailey received money from the Standard Oil trust, while the Senator asserts the money was borrowed. Leaders of the fight against him today sent circulars to all prospective delegates, urging them to unite in obtaining action on this Texas issue.

The Northern States organization, headed by United States Senators Dupont and Richardson, the so-called administration faction, which was defeated at the primaries last Saturday, had only a comparatively small number of delegates.

LUCKY VICTORY FOR OAKLAND.

Long Struggle Featured by Fine Pitching.Koestner Shows He Is Getting Into Condition.Easterly and Halsey Do Some Good Fielding.

Old man Van Halteren has already been forced to work the horseshoe game this early in the season and this tips his hand so that any one can see that he won't finish one two in the pennant race. Whenever a bunch has to depend on help to win the third game of a long season, it's good-bye to the home team sometimes comes in the tail end of the year when games are really needed.

It was all luck yesterday and the only real interest in the struggle was in seeing which team would out-jerk the other, for there were few fielding features and the hitting wasn't hard enough to scare any one. Both Hardy and Koestner were the original tight wads when it came to swats and the Oaks had to play twelve innings before they could get them in.

Speaking about Koestner, he was a distinct shock to everyone who saw him work yesterday. When the Chicago team was here he was stuck in to pitch and gave seven or eight passes in one inning and had as much idea of getting there as the Grand avenue car. You could see the sweat come around their necks and floated up to the plate in beautiful fashion and fanned out seven and would have had more if Bill Perrine had not been a trifle weak in his big frames at the ball. He was hit but six times in twelve innings and this is moving considerably for a new pitcher that made such an awful show of himself in the early part of the year. Easterly was about the only one who could hold his own last poke that helped win the game was the dinkiest kind of a scratch. He fielded his position like a veteran and certainly like those who roared him take it back.

Bush Ellis can be charged with the loss of the game, for it was his miss of an easy fly that allowed the Oaks to score in the fourth. The Bush is always trying to cover up his mistakes yesterday were forgotten when he tried to knock the score board down with a triple in the seventh inning.

While there were six errors to mark the play the fielding generally was of a high class order and Halsey, Easterly and Smith did some fine work. Halsey made three and seven assists, and Easterly six outs and four errors. The score doesn't show what fine work was done by some of the players and the fact that the game went twelve rounds before it was won by scratch plays directly into the something good was going on all the time.

There are only three innings that require any history. Cook started the scoring for Oakland with a single to left and second base. The next man made a single and both Cook and Van Halteren went to third. Van Halteren followed with a short fly to left, which Ellis ran up and muffed. Halsey Hestmiller struck out and then came around the base in front of the plate and it was his turn to position that Cook scored and Van Halteren ran to third while Easterly was throwing out Eagan on first. W. Dillon and Van Halteren scored.

Los Angeles tied the score in the fifth, Delmas starting things with a swat to left. Easterly grounded to Halsey, who lunged the ball and Koestner forced Easterly out on a grounder to Halsey. This put Delmas on third and he stole home while Koestner was stealing to second base. Hestmiller followed with a fly to Van Halteren who muffed the ball and Koestner scored on the error and the throw in.

These were all the runs for six innings. Van Halteren had the ball with a pass and an advance on Hestmiller's sacrifice. He went to third on Quick's grounder to the infield, the ball went through to the plate in time to keep Van Halteren out. Los Angeles could do nothing in half of the twelfth, for a fast double play stopped the chances.

FINAL GYM EXHIBITION.

Los Angeles and Polytechnic High School Teams Prepare to Show in the North.

The Los Angeles and Polytechnic High Schools' gymnasium teams will their last exhibition tomorrow in the Los Angeles' assembly hall. This is the second show they have given this year, the first being at Polytechnic.

The purpose of these two exhibits was to help defray the expenses of the trip which the two teams will take north.

The drill was perfect in all details, and shows the work of long practice.

The men worked on the rings, mats and horse, and although the Polytechnic lads showed better form on several occasions, both teams were equal.

The teams leave this city Thursday, April 9, and will not return until about April 23.

One of the features of yesterday's gym exhibit was the comedy gym skit given by Tom Cohn, Ned Manning and Edwin Fly. Although this part of the programme has not received as much attention as the other, it was his hit.

Physical Director G. S. Lowsley will accompany the teams north.

COUNCILMAN ACCUSED.
Mayor's Communication Causes Sensation—Bond Dispute Settled—Planning Crime Suppression.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES—SAN DIEGO, April 7.—A resolution was approved at the meeting of the Council last evening, when a communication was read from Mayor Forward giving the result of an investigation by the Auditing Committee, of which he is chairman, into the matter of bills for team hire contracted by city officials with Councilman Charles Kelly of the Non-Partisan Ward. The bills had been paid to E. A. Littlepage, foreman of the Kelley stables, having been made out in his name.

The charter states that city officials shall not be interested in city contracts, and the State law also prohibits the investigating committee made by the Auditing Committee of the request of the District Attorney's office.

The last bill deposited with the committee by Littlepage was for $312 for team hire, and the amount was paid by the Security Savings Bank and Trust Company of this city, amounting to $111,000, had been delivered.

It will be used in the construction of a new system road, Jolla, costing $24,000; the cemetery road, costing $5000, and in the building of $70,000 worth of boulevards.

The State company was the highest bidder, paying $21,000, but is not willing to take them on any other basis than par and accrued interest.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The southern end of the Seventh Ward has become debatable land; there the Council will permit the question of a local "dry" to be fought out on a local option issue.

City Auditor Musket detailed yesterday his first assistant, H. Ivor Thomas, to conduct the investigation of "foolish finance" in the school department.

Sitting in secret session, a special Council Committee listened yesterday to the witnesses for the city in the Gamewell fire and police alarm inquiry.

At H. M. Rodman deposition that he is not dead, Judge James yesterday gave judgment in his favor in his election suit against Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Oliver.

The Supervisors yesterday awarded to Otto Quandt, the lowest bidder, the contract for county election booths. The cost was $1,000 for 45,000 barrels of oil for roads and appropriated $1,000 for work in the San Gabriel levee district.

AT THE CITY HALL. FIGHTING FOR "WET OR DRY."

SEVENTH WARD NOW BECOMES DEBATABLE GROUND.

Fate of Outlaws Depends on the Result of Campaign for Frontage Signatures—Liquor Men Give up in Territory West of Central Avenue. "Brone Bob" to the Rescue.

The southern portion of the Seventh Ward has become the debatable ground to the liquor men. The territory of wholesale liquor dealers and the White Ribbon brigade. The liquor men have sent out solicitors to secure frontage signatures favoring the liquor stores, and the reformers are sending others around to conduct a campaign of education along prohibition lines among the residents of the districts.

In the first day out the liquor interests gained a slight victory. The debatable land consists of the district bounded by Seventh street, Ninth street, San Julian street and the Los Angeles River. It contains about 100 city blocks. The temperance workers started yesterday in the territory lying west of Central avenue; in the Central business district they found the promises of three-fourths of the property owners that they would not sign a petition for wholesale liquor stores.

Late last night they learned that the liquor men included the territory west of Central avenue simply as a blind; that they do not expect to win in that portion of the Seventh Ward, and that the temperance workers will continue to insist that the territory east of Central avenue only.

Monday the Council instructed the City Clerk to verify signatures of property owners in the district affected, whether for or against the liquor stores. This is a case where "wet" or "dry" can be to a decided local option. If the temperance men secure the signatures of a majority of the frontage in the district, the Council may vote to extend the liquor zone so as to include that territory.

Considerable feeling has been manifested among the liquor men themselves over the action of three of their number in applying for what they consider to be a grant of frontage.

The present contention is pending. The twenty-one outlaws have made their fight on the plea that it is impossible for them to secure signatures inside the city limits. This argument is nullified by the act of the three wholesalers who have gone out and secured locations in order to start a new business. None of the twenty-one outside the district has secured signatures for a location inside.

The fight over the debatable land in the Seventh Ward is one of the most intense in the city. "Brone Bob" Todd is conducting the liquor forces; he is making use of all the fine points of the game he learned during his three terms as Councilman.

INVESTIGATION BEGINS.

LIGHT ON FOOLISH FINANCE.

City Auditor Musket detailed H. Ivor Thomas yesterday to conduct the investigation of the conditions in the school department ordered by the Council Monday. Mr. Thomas is a certified accountant. He supplied most of the details last summer in the investigation of the Gamewell fire, and police also supplied some information this investigation that caused the Auditor to decline to issue demands for $14,000 in favor of the Gamewell company for boxes supplied here.

The administration officials in the school department apparently do not take kindly to the action of the Council in ordering the investigation. They are preparing a "statement" of conditions in the department as they stand now, and the Council will accept this in lieu of an official report from the Auditor.

The Councilmen say that the investigation which they have asked for the school department is one to which every other department in the city has been subjected during the last year, if they fail to see why an exception cannot be made for those in charge of schools.

If the school administration can assure the Council that the schools are kept open ten months this year as they have been for the last two years, and that the teachers receive the full twelve months' pay which they were promised when the school term opened, then sixteen teachers will be given permanent positions, as the blust old justice has blurred over the bar we may make an interesting chapter.

He was very candid in his confession of his fingerbed work on the Los Angeles charter when the famous test was made a few years ago.

OLD CASE NEARING END.

The case of the Citizens Savings and Trust Company of Cleveland against the bankrupt Bear Valley Irrigation Company came up in the United States Circuit Court yesterday for final disposition. It has been pending in the Federal Court since 1923. Suit was originally brought to foreclose a mortgage on the property of the irrigation company. Numerous suits were filed by Attorney Britt of this city and Byron Bates of San Bernardino. It is expected that the entire litigation will be closed within a short time if new complications do not arise.

COURT'S VACANT CHAIR.

Justice McFarland Stricken With Blindness and Cancer and Probably Will Not Be Able to Return to the Supreme Bench.

Justice Thomas B. McFarland of the California Supreme Court, whose vacant chair at the session here is looked upon with foreboding by his friends. He is reported blind and is suffering terribly from cancer.

that the patriarch would get tremendously excited and let out plain old curses.

Altogether he is lovable and popular.

It is feared that the distinguished old man will never return to his place.

Although suffering horribly from a cancer, and half-blind, the veteran justice stuck heroically to his work until about three weeks ago, when he sight failed completely.

His retirement is now looked upon as almost certain. The fact that his friends can hope for is a partial respite of his health; few of them even expect to see him on the bench again.

It is regarded as a remarkable exhibition of will power that he has remained so long in active service.

A couple of years ago a cancer broke out on his right cheek. During the hearing of the great case in San Francisco last summer—almost a year ago—his suffering was harrowing. He maintained his place, however, hearing the arguments and occasionally interrupting the speaker of his famous comments, although his face was drawn and wracked.

He was recently operated on for the cancer, and bore the operation successfully, though the right eye was affected.

Quite recently he suffered a hemorrhage in the left eye, and is at present unable to see at all. He was, of course, forced to drop his work. He is giving every effort by specialists to give him hope of recovering the sight of the left eye.

HART GETS CUSTOM MILL.

Twenty-ton Little Giant Plant Arranged for.

Chief Lease Will Test its Ore Values.

The Coal Company Is Put Out of Business.

It is to have a twenty-ton custom mill with which to conduct its operations upon the ore now being taken from the many leases operated by it. The arrangement was made here yesterday between H. S. McFarland, president of the firm of George A. Foster &amp; Co., who has the contract having been awarded to him, and that of the Big Chief Mining Company, which it controls.

The mill is a twenty-ton Little Giant and is now on the way from Seattle, where it was taken apart, to be set up on Flanagan's ground at the head of Main street and as the head of the mine.

The chief lease is a simple matter of probably running within ten days.

A six-horse power motor engine will supply the power and has already been purchased.

Officials Declare Refunds Have Been Stopped.

Frank confession of past concessions to shippers and jobbers was made by the railroads at yesterday's hearing before the State Railroad Commission, but it was asserted that the road no longer makes temporary rates or grants refunds.

Numerous instances of rebates given to shippers and jobbers were cited by Raymond Benjamin, assistant Attorney-General, in his searching examination of W. G. Barnwell, general freight agent and Edward Chambers, assistant general freight traffic manager.

Both admitted freely admitted the facts in each individual case, but were ready with copious reasons.

The commissioners supplemented the queries of Atty.-Gen. Webb and his assistant by numerous questions, mainly directed at the methods in vogue at the present time. "We are grateful to the officers of the company for their evident desire to furnish us with full data on traffic rates," stated Commissioner Loveland. "They are aiming to get at the bottom of the question with reference to future procedure of this board, in fixing maximum rates."

Although Chambers admitted on the witness stand that special rates were granted to the San Francisco and Los Angeles, the Newberry Company of San Francisco and local firms were cited by Raymond Benjamin, assistant Attorney-General, in his searching examination of W. G. Barnwell, general freight agent and Edward Chambers, assistant general freight traffic manager.

Presenting the Sierras and a great California pine tree, the first of its kind, might be more effective if it were continued about the corners of the stage in a half-circle instead of being bent at right angles thus causing some very sharp shadows. A crowded condition of the stage, however, may necessitate the present disposition of the canvas.

I am still undecided whether this was fixed up by the Auditorium press agent or not; it looks suspicious, say the least, to have the box office and the audience department present as well as a set of false fronts, the morning after the opening of a comic opera.

But such a set is there, in the Auditorium, and the number of affidavits that they were actually found in a seat by the negro janitor.

I presume we are to infer that the owner launched so hard that his teeth fell out, and he was so amused that he forgot all about them, as the press agent would have us believe.

However, had he gone back before the curtain fell, he would have bitten himself seriously amidships.

The Belts of Aradus, at pitcher's field, is a comedy built on Weber's Fielder Lines by Will Carleton. Herb Bell and George Morell are funny in the roles of the two German physicians, while Bessie Tannehill, Nellie Gamblin complete the cast. Baldwin and Morell complete the cast. Baldwin and Morell are singing, and Eddie O'Brien presents a vaudeville act of some merit.

FORMAL announcement is made of Miss Angie Stewart, of this city, to Dr. Daniel W. Doolittle of Pomona, who is a brother-in-law of Judge Charles D. Wilber. ## ANTI-PROHIBITION APPEAL.

Farmers and Workingmen Urged in Large Poster to Take Stand Against Movement.

Comrades of the Farmers' probably a hundred men's organization, is evidently starting a campaign against the rising tide of prohibition sentiment. Farmers and workingmen are the objects of the latest appeal, which is in the form of a large poster displayed on billboards around the city.

The appeal starts with the words "Farmers and Workingmen, Attention!" in big red caps. This is followed by the statement that brewers, maltsters and distillers of the United States used in the past year farm products to the value of $10,000,000, including corn, barley, rye, oats, hay, etc. The agriculturist is warned that if the market for the farmers of one State goes it means additional competition for others. It is stated that brewers and distillers furnish a livelihood for two million and a half people and buy annually lumber, building supplies, engines, boilers, glass, etc., to the value of $10,000,000 upward, and that a third of all the taxes of the United States are paid by them. It is asked if they will allow "stump speakers who pay no taxes" to compel them to pay more to support the "public institutions which are now supported by business concerns" which these interlopers want to destroy?

The closing paragraphs says: "Every farmer, every workingman and every man in the United States should now assert his right to use every effort to suppress this growing evil of prohibition, and hypocritical drunks, which, if allowed to prevail, will create a financial crisis such as the world has never seen."

The circular is unsigned and there is nothing on it to give a clue to its authorship.

GAMEWELL INQUIRY.

Special Council Meeting Meets in Star Chamber in City Hall Garret.

Meeting in the star chamber in the City Hall garret, a special Council committee commenced yesterday its investigation of the Gamewell police and fire alarm systems. The Auditor is holding back $16,000 in demands drawn in favor of the Gamewell Company, on the ground that they do not constitute a valid claim against the city.

Three witnesses were examined yesterday morning, the hearing taking the form of a grand jury investigation. A representative of the Gamewell Company came to the star chamber and insisted on an adjournment until noon. The Gamewell agent insisted that he has a right to attend an inquiry affecting his company, but the Council committee decided otherwise.

The testimony taken before the special committee intended to show to the Councilmen why the Gamewell demands have been held up. The Auditor asks that the hearing be kept secret, as he expects to prove to the Gamewell attorneys in a suit in court, and he doesn't care to furnish his evidence publicly until the trial actually takes place. The hearing will probably last all week.

For Whist Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wagner of Maple Avenue entertained members of the Eastern Whist Club at their home which was artistically decorated for the occasion.

The home was fragrant with orange blossoms, which were combined with wild ferns. After a honeymoon at Coronado, the young couple will make their home at No. 47 North Grand avenue.

The splendid professional attractions of highest order, and, of course, circus would be a circus without the army of Shriners merry-makers that swarms under the canvas roof and in the cage that makes great game.

This double aggregation is for the benefit of the Children's Hospital of the city, to which is anticipated that we shall be able to make a decided donation, which it is hoped will exceed $10,000.

There was a thrilling scene last night when the animals were let loose. ## NO LEGAL WARPATH NOW FOR INDIANS.

THROUGH the peaceful settlement of the land troubles of the Cahuihuas Indians, all fear that the bucks might go on a legal warpath has been removed. In behalf of several hundred warlike Uncle Sams, the chiefs forwarded a formal application to the Department of the Interior at Washington, yesterday, requesting that the present boundary lines of the reservations be preserved, and that each Indian have an allotment of a small tract of land. The bucks will build substantial houses, cultivate gardens and become independent, if the plans of James E. Royce, superintendent of the tribe, are carried out.

The final solution of the perplexing problem is regarded as a diplomatic triumph for the Indian Department.

A week ago the bucks were surly and suspicious of the white settlers in the Coachella Valley. They had heard rumors that their lands were to be taken from them and feared their families would be scattered. Several hundred Indians were on the verge of a miniature revolution.

As an official of the Interior Department, Gen. Frank C. Prescott went to Martinez, one of the reservations, located near Mecca, several days ago to confer with Superintendent Royce.

He was told that the Indians had called and the pipe of peace was finally smoked. They met in a schoolhouse and probably for the first time in their lives sat down to have heart talks from the government officials.

Gen. Prescott gave a brief address in English, which he repeated in Spanish.

For the benefit of the few Indians who did not understand either tongue, an interpreter translated the gift of the speech into the native dialect.

The Cahuihuas were told that they must take decisive action or their lands would be taken away and they can't do anything about it.

"You must conform to the ways of the white man. If you want to keep these lands you must work hard and cultivate them and protect your rights, but you must be willing to do something for yourselves. The days of the rambadas have gone by. You must live in the houses and it will be better."

The chief and representatives of the tribe listened in absolute silence while the address was delivered. At its close they applauded the speaker and crowded around him to learn what could be done to preserve their holdings. At the suggestion of Gen. Prescott, the chiefs drew up an application directed to Francis L. Lewis, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, asking for: "We the undersigned Indians of the Torres, Cabazon, and Augustine reservations in council assembled, all families of the Cahuihuas Indians hereby request our superintendent, James E. Royce, to procure the permanent preservation of the present

The Damage to the Schools.

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—(To the Editor of The Times:) I notice with great pleasure the able presentation in The Times of Sunday of the school finance question. It has been discussed secretly by the teachers for the past month or two, in fact, ever since the superintendent informed them in a called meeting that they would receive no increase in wages, salary and per cent of the same, though the twelve months' payments were to remain intact. The question that came to the mind of every one in the middle school is, how the while principals can this educator make eleven and not quite a half months' wages equal twelve months' wages?

However, the superintendent, then made a startling statement, that not only the teaching force, but the superintendents and the entire office department would feel the two weeks and added percentage loss. And the question was raised for a moment's thought, he would have recalled that he had stated an unequivocal impossibility, for at the time of his election, he had agreed with the other heads of the department, including the High School principals, was changed from a monthly to a yearly scale of salary, thereby allowing no cut from the salary to be made at any time.

I think that the school board has always felt that it had the teaching force with it in any project attempted, until this year. Now, throughout the schools, dissatisfaction is the prevailing note, and since the schoolroom must reflect the teacher's attitude, that dissatisfaction has shown itself in poorer work done by teacher and pupils. The principal papers were examined, the superintendent and school board would find an enormous decrease in general effort between September and February's work. In the schools there was a general decline, and since the schoolroom must reflect the teacher's attitude, that dissatisfaction has shown itself in poorer work done by teacher and pupils. The principal papers were examined, the superintendent and school board would find an enormous decrease in general effort between September and February's work. In the schools there was a general decline, and since the schoolroom must reflect the teacher's attitude, that dissatisfaction has shown itself in poorer work done by teacher and pupils. The principal papers were examined, the superintendent and school board would pense on the part of the parents, the teachers have the pleasure of seeing two or three different men to bring them, and one to Europe, a salary of $275 a month, for a one year's trip.

I do not wish to decry the superintendent. He undoubtedly has introduced many new and startling ideas into the school community. But it does seem to me that a further knowledge of business methods by him or the Finance Committee of the board would save us the trouble he could have involved the department.

One of the new ideas inaugurated by Mr. Foshay and advertised widely by Dr. Moore was the foreign ungraded room, for which those who spoke of the English language would receive a working knowledge of it. Since the enforced closing of these rooms from lack of funds, these for the past year have not only been closed but the English language would have been distributed among the first and second grades. Their presence there may take special attention from the teacher, but it is the other normal pupils. It seems to me the foreign ungraded room would have been of vast relief to the already overcrowded room.

As it is introduced under Dr. Moore, the Parental School, The Times' able exposition of that almost pupilless school precludes further discussion.

Had the grade teachers felt that there was a necessity for re-enrichment throughout the department, I am positive they would have cheerfully assisted to the best of their ability, but I know that many minds are of the opinion that they are being fined and must lose wages to rectify expensive mistakes and useless experiments of the school system, and that contrary to the superintendent's statement, that after all economy is not shared by the department heads.

For many years before my marriage I taught in school in various parts of the United States. I have tried through the mothers' clubs to keep in touch with them. At a convention of the Middle States' mothers' clubs, or parent-teacher associations, as well as in the West, I told them that the teachers of Los Angeles were remarkably well treated. There was also the general sentiment that in no place in the United States were the cooperation and good spirit and good work shown by the teachers as in Los Angeles. When by letters and news-papers the try state was mentioned as they are, you will be told throughout the United States, a very different opinion of our school system from what is now held will prevail in the East.

PHOENIX STIRRED BY EPIDEMIC OF ELECTIONS.

Maricopa County to Settle "Dry" Phoenix—Motor Boat Traffic Projected on Colorado River—Arizona Buys Acres for Townsite, Much Mesquite Wood Burned.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) April 5.—Just as this locality is immersed in politics, we have been a protest against the Indians, and will be purchased by the State.

Territorial Auditor Sims Ely was elected a trustee. City Councilmen are to be selected from the Second and Fourth wards on May 5. A hot fight is to be had over boundaries.

The three baseball teams in Phoenix are organized a local league with A. W. Galpin as president, and R. M. Dawson as secretary. From the three teams will be picked one to represent the city in all contests with outside mines.

ARIZONA'S MAGAZINE.

Arizona has a magazine of her own in "The Call of the Desert," of which the initial number was issued April 1, at Phoenix. Its editor and owner is Charles von Fauck, formerly of Los Angeles.

April 1, F. W. Nichols surrendered the place of Territorial Secretary, to take up the management of the Union Bank and Trust Company of Phoenix.

Samuel has been succeeded in the place of Territorial Auditor by Sims Ely, who, in turn, has resigned the place of private secretary to Gov. Fred Cleveland of Morenci, late Territorial Councilman from Graham county, which meets in Tucson a week later.

Added to all of this, within Maricopa county residents will be held an election deciding whether liquor shall be sold.

The liquor dealers have formed a strong organization.

There is general belief that the vote will be cast to sustain the ballot.

ARIZONA AND CALIFORNIA ROAD.

It had been expected that the new Arizona and California Railroad would be completed and in operation by August of this year, but it is now known that the road is to be built westward from the Parker bridge, under charge of the same Mr. Murphy.

Men are working on grade approaches on the California side of the great Colorado River bridge but little is expected to be done on road building to Bengal town.

Sunday night in Phoenix died Frank W. Bennett, son of ex-Major Walter Bennett, and one of the most prominent of the young attorneys of that city. He was 29 years old and a graduate of Stanford.

of the Smithsonian Institution, is spending a few days in this vicinity in search of a suitable place to hold an election deciding whether liquor shall be sold.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

Section Six Company Losses Tumbled

Plant by Fire—Work of Other Companies.

The Section Six Company received word yesterday that its boiler-hous es and engines were destroyed by fire early the same morning. No particulars were given as to cause.

The Mexican Central Railroad expects to change ten of its locomotives from coal to oil burners every month, as it will be liquid fuel.

This means a steady increase in consumption and eventually an increase in the receipts of the Mexican Petrolium Company, which is sure to be more than enough to meet its expenses.

Although the company may first exceed the minimum amount under the contract. The purchase of large acreage near Tampico by Pearson and their entrance into the Mexican oil business, which is much more highly developed than ours, is certain not to affect the Mexican Petroleum in any way.

The Monte Cristo Oil Company, a San Francisco concern working in San Joaquin, has levied an assessment of 3 cents a share, delinquent May 6.

The company intends to drill five wells on its newly-acquired Hillside lands, for which purpose the money is to be used presently. Delinquent were for years past.

THE TWENTY-FIVE OIL COMPANY

of May 20 has leased seventy-five acres in the north half of the southeast quarter of the section from which it is named, to A. B. Canfield and associates. Four wells are to be put down at the rate of one acre per well.

Notwithstanding depression in many lines the oil well supply companies say there is no decline in business.

NEW TOWN PROJECTED.

Thomas F. and William, father of the Anglos, have bought the old and will plot it into a townsite of 320 acres. They base the hopes of their town upon the prospect that upon its completion it will be established the

CHAPTER XIII.—(Continued.)
There was a humiliation, too, in the secret, a proud shame, that she could confess even to herself, that the man who had just gone from her, the man who had been the source of her greatest joy, in its first exultation, had been taken, with the spell of his love, with the spell of life itself, went with her, and left nothing but a very faint, half-conscious remembrance of what had been given to some natures is borne away, as little value as a tiny spark of a summer day, to the setting sun, and to come again when another day is born. But other natures, lonely, and without power to stay; pain, sorrow, separation, even death itself, have a power to dispossess such a home as this that loves us, as it were, into death.

Katherine Graniger.

CHAPTER XIV.
To eat and eat dinner alone in the dinner room was beyond Katherine this evening. She went resolutely determined to do again, but she had reckoned without the maid.

"It was ripe for a good long time," she said. "I insisted, too, on bringing dinner and waiting on Katherine. I found the girl looking very sad and depressed. But when she reached this point Miss Graniger firmly declared that she had never seen all that you have been doing," she said.

"Really it was a relief for her to sit at my table, and not to wait with fidgets questioning for a chance to hear the maid's voice of cheerfulness. Dennis told me about the country and how the servants labored and cared for any person.

"It's a kind of paradise," she said. "I am down with them rich folk now, and we were that crowded. Now how to turn round. Of course, I have heard of Dennis, but I am off than most, because Dennis wanted me with her most.

"What do you think of Dennis?" Katherine asked, looking abashedly at the girl.

"She is very shabby, and she's that shabby. I do not like her looking simple."

"I am not sure she's got much to offer," she said.

"I wouldn't say it to Dennis, but I can help think below Broadways."

Col. Griffith Will Address a Mass Meeting on the Subject of Prison Reform.

Col. Griffith J. Griffith will deliver a lecture on "Crime, Punishment and Reform" in the Auditorium on next Saturday evening. This same lecture that Col. Griffith delivered in San Francisco some time ago, and probably embodies much of the interesting matter published in The Times over his signature, before he thought of lecturing on what he regards as necessary and vital reforms in the treatment of prisoners in our penitentiaries.

The lecture will be free, and will be delivered at a mass meeting called in response to a request to Col. Griffith from Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, Mayor Harper, Judge N. P. Conroy, Niles Pease, A. W. Atkinson, Robert Hale and a number of other persons.

After Col. Griffith has announced to some number of ladies who for many years have been interested in prison work, secured Simpson Auditorium, and also the consent of Mayor Harper to speak at the meeting on Saturday night. The public is cordially invited to turn out and hear the thrilling story of the man who served his sentence, and now desires to spend his life in endeavoring to better the condition of other men under like circumstances.

Methodist Women Show Large Sum Gathered and Expended for Work of the Church.

The Board of Woman's Home Missionary Association of Southern California presented that I am overjoyed to find the children try me, that she is always urgent, know if that should not be, and that she is all, so everything else stands on one side, she thinks there is a claim.

It is really to go to London to see the world, and when her mind was made up, and she recalled the earlier part of the day, and the veritable tears she had experienced, she had broken at Camilla's almost worn face, her eagerness and help him, to put an end to this dangerous and dangerous scheme to burn in and quench the heat of her own and tranquility fell on her.

"I have one great joy," she said, "but as she said there, it would not be right, could not prove proof of that, when she spoke to me about these words today."

"I heard some one move, and stand and ride, she said to the door. It was the small child who waited on her.

"Bring you a letter, miss," she said.

CROSS BECOMES A CIRCLE.

A new circle has been formed in the United States—a circle which incorporates the cross. Fred Wadsworth, however, has been sent broadcast over the country telling "how to form a circle of the American National Red Cross." The government recently decided to throw open the grand organization to all Americans, and it is reported that already applications for enrollment are pouring in. Edward R. Johnstone, room 241 War Department Annex, is the national organizer, and applications should be sent to him. William H. Taft has lent the weight of his vast influence to the movement. He is the president of the organization. The Red Cross in America, France, Great Britain and other nations is chartered to mitigate suffering in time of peace as well as war.

William E. Brown writes another letter to The Times in which the following points are made:

In an article entitled "Mind and Christian Science is declared to be a form of mesmerism." This is a popular misconception of the modus operandi of this science.

Instead of employing suggestion or mesmerism, Christian Science is diametrically opposite to them in principle and practice, and destroys them in healing the sick.

The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous

144 Tons of Gold Dust

We Own It Absolutely and Will Give You a Generous Share

This unqualified offer at once removes our mining proposal from the hordes of untried and often hopeless projects with which well-meaning men delude themselves and others.

WE HAVE THE GOLD, and we want your help in an undertaking that is more certain of success than any banking, commercial or manufacturing proposition can possibly be.

The Peruvian Gold Mining Corporation by owning eleven mines containing 384 claims, virtually possesses the whole of the immensely rich Neotinoco Gold Placers in the Department of Cusco. An official report of the mineral wealth of this district, issued by the Peruvian State Department, conservatively estimates the total amount of gold dust in this valley at $182,250,000.

Our deeds, countersigned by the United States Legation at Peru, show our absolute ownership of claims totaling 46,000 square yards each of gold bearing sand, averaging nine feet in depth, or even 46,000,000 yards, guaranteed to contain at the lowest estimate $2,000 per yard.

We therefore make the positive statement, which is more than confirmed by government tests and our own workings to date, that our property is worth in pure, fine, fake gold, $92,180,000.00.

If you know the history of Gold Peru, and the incredible wealth of her ancient rulers, you must realize that modern methods applied to these gold sands will produce many times the riches that once flowed in a steady stream from Peru to Spain.

Our deeds, countersigned by the United States Legation at Peru, show our absolute ownership of claims totaling 46,000 square yards each of gold bearing sand, averaging nine feet in depth, or even 46,000,000 yards, guaranteed to contain at the lowest estimate $2,000 per yard.

By buying a share of stock now—on the ground floor—at 50c on the dollar, it is possible for one dollar to earn $36 in dividends.

The small investor has never had such an unusual opportunity given him, to share safely in a great fortune.

Write for our prospectus, maps and plans, and a copy of "The President's Story," before it is too late.

BERNARDINO, April 7.—Through his attorney, Lewis A. Groff, a suit was filed here today by Mrs. Harriet O. Mattern against G. Edward Alderman and J. C. Anderson of

Mattern had given Alderman conveying

SLOT MACHINES MAY OPERATE.

Anti-Gambling Law Does Not Apply to Them.

So Holds Judge Concerning
New Mexican Statute.

His Honor Scores Men Who Voted for Measure.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA FE (N.M.) April 2.—Judge Edward A. Mann of Alamogordo, presiding over the Sixth judicial district, in an opinion just handed down in the habeas corpus proceedings of Charles R. Jones, of Santa Rosa, who was arrested on two separate charges of violating the anti-gambling law, first by operating and running gambling games, and second by being a gambler, held that the anti-gambling statute enacted by the last legislature, and which became operative January 1, last, does not apply to slot machines. The defendant was discharged from custody on the ground that the complainants did him no harm or damage "whatsoever." The case, in question was in the nature of an action to test the new law, and the attorney of Jones was the first one for a vindication of the statute, which had a stop to licensed gambling which had flourished in New Mexico for many years.

Judge Mann's opinion is in direct conflict with one rendered by Atty. Gen. James M. Hagan soon after the anti-gambling law went into effect. The Attorney-General holding that slot machines were included in that portion of the statute which prohibited "any game of chance whatsoever." The case in question was in the nature of an action to test the new law, and the attorney of Jones was the first one for a vindication of the statute, which had a stop to licensed gambling which had flourished in New Mexico for many years.

The decision just rendered is much more important than appears on the face of it, for it is believed it will afford an avenue for the conducting of gambling on no small scale. This because the machine evil is one of the most flourishing forms of gambling. The slot machines will now get all the patronage of those for whom the various other forms of gambling had an execrable reputation. It is also believed that machines will be so constructed as to operate almost like the roulette wheel, in which event the anti-gambling statute would be of little use unless it should be repealed at the next session of the Territorial Legislature and made more stringent so as to include slot machines within its provisions.

In the course of his opinion, Judge Mann takes occasion to score those members of the Legislature who were instrumental in securing the enactment of this anti-gambling law for posing as reformers. To quote from the judge's opinion:

"It may also be mentioned, to our shame perhaps, but with truth nevertheless, that the accomplishment of open gambling in both the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona has its origin in Congress, and that until a bill for its abolishment had been reported in Congress the legislatures of both Territories took steps in that direction, such legislation as they did finally pass was called forth more by fear of national legislation upon the subject than by any great moral wave of reform in our Legislature."

FOR SIGHTLESS PEOPLE.

Has Done More for Dwellers in Darkness Than Any Other Living
Person—King Edward May Confer
Knighthood Upon Him Because of His Success.

There was recently published in the American newspapers an interesting article about America's famous living blind man. It contained the reference, to Dr. Francis Joseph Campbell, of Los Angeles, who is head of the Royal Normal College and Academy of Music for the Blind at Norwood, one of the suburbs of London. So far as it is possible for such an institution to be the work of one man, the college is Dr. Campbell's creation. Englishmen believe it to be the best of its kind in the world.

Dr. Campbell has done more for the dwellers in the kingdom of darkness than any other living person, and he has not been blind but to qualify him for his life's task, it was essential that he should lose his sight. Playing in the yard of his parents' home in Franklin Temple, one day, when he was twenty-two or three years old, he ran into a thorned acacia bush, and was severely injured, so severely that he could not see for a week.

FORBIDDEN TO TOUCH PIANO.

Tennessee had no school for the blind in those days. Not until the boy was 10 years old was a small one opened in Nashville. Thither young Campbell was sent. Within three-quarters of an hour after his arrival he was asked to play the piano. But he was no part of the scheme of destiny to make things easy for him.

A terrible disappointment awaited him. When he turned up for his weekly lesson in music, he met with a wretched failure of his attempts to sound his tones and showed such an utter incapacity to him even a tune that he was asked to leave the room, and that musical instruction would be wasted on him. The man who has done more than any other man to make music the chief sport and pastime of the blind, has never been allowed to touch the piano. He was relegated to brush and basket making. He hired one of the boys to give him lessons in music, and the boy did not know music master; also blind, who had pronounced him hopelessly incompetent caused to enter the room where he could not be seen playing. Who is that doing the new thing, so well? he asked. I sir, replied the boy, I have learned all that you have taught the other. Fifteen months later he had passed the piano for playing. He worked hard for it. As there were only two pianos in the school he had to get up at 3 o'clock in the morning to have the piano for practice. In the second morning he was up at 3 o'clock, matters were the same again. The piano gave out. But he still kept up his practice. He would play for hours, then go to bed, and the next day he would play again. He was able to separate the burden of the piano from the great metropolis for five hours' practice at the piano. When he was barely 20 he was appointed teacher of music in the very institu-
